PRESENTATION CANCELLATION

On December 11, 2013, the United States Postal Service received notice from Community Board 10 that they cancelled the Postal Service's planned presentation (addressed below) from their December 12, 2013 meeting agenda. The presentation has not at this time been re-scheduled.

Notice of Public Meeting and Comment Period for Proposed Relocation of College Station Post Office

The United States Postal Service ("Postal Service") is proposing relocating the retail services currently provided at the College Station Post Office located at 217 West 140 Street, New York, New York ("Post Office") to a yet-to-be determined new location within the same ZIP Code area.

If the relocation is approved and undertaken, the retail services available to customers at the present location would continue at the new location. Mail delivery would continue to residents and businesses, and there would be no interruption of services to the community.

The Postal Service will present this proposal at the December 12, 2013 Manhattan Community Board 10 Economic Development Committee public meeting being held at the Board's District Office located at 215 West 125th Street, 4th Floor. The meeting is scheduled to start at 6:30 pm.

Written comments are being accepted through December 27, 2013. Please submit comments to:
